“ James was a good friend from my hometown of Chester, SC and was an excellent QB in high school. A very successful businessman along the Grand Strand we always laughed at the old days of growing up at Crazy Hill and the Gayle Mill Village . We both loved a good hotdog. RIP old friend.

“ Uncle James will be missed. He was always kind to me and my girls when we would swing by to visit while doing our day trips to the beach! May God bless his boys - Jimmy, Brian and Kevin.

“ To the Sons of Deanna and James Edward - I am so sorry to hear of this - I had NOT seen any of you in so many years past - since your family moved to the beach so many years ago - as you should well know your parents were such a special couple - it saddened my heart so several years ago when your Mom was called "HOME" - prior to her passing she had sent me a friend's request on FB and I did NOT know of it - for I was off of FB for a year or more - and when I did go back on FB - I saw her request and learned of her passing many months after - it broke my heart to learn of it - and I vaguely heard of this recent of your Dad passing and have been looking constantly on the internet for a notice of and I asked a few relatives of - I am just an (x by x-marriage)-relative but am still considered "A RELATIVE" regardless - so I am told - anyway wanted to reach out and extend deepest sympathy and share that you have relatives in areas near Chester besides harvey (Rooster) and Mike - which as some of you might have Lynn Ferrell - but my children are Neal Ferrell (Marvin Jr) - Michelle Harper - Chrissy Tharp (Christel) - Prayers for all of your and your families - peace - harmony - endurance - acceptance and much love. Wishing you all well. So sorry to hear of your loss. Faye Ferrell-York - Richburg, SC .

“ I have known James for over 25 years and considered him a good friend. He frequented my hardware store in the late 90's and was one of my first clients when I changed careers. We often visited over breakfast at Surfside Jenny's or Golden Egg where he loved his SOS breakfast. He spoke often of his love for his grand children. I am saddened by his passing. He will be missed.
