

James T. Fiesel

June 25, 1942 - August 7, 2020

James T. Fiesel, age 78, passed away on Friday, August 7, 2020 at MUSC Hospital, Charleston, following a brief illness.

Born in Indianapolis, Indiana, he was a son of the late Eugene and Alice Fiesel.

He was a loving husband, father and grandfather and had served honorably in the United States Navy. Following many different career paths, James found his true calling as the owner and operator of Socastee Barbershop for many years. He was also able to fulfill his passion for music by entertaining many guest at Pacinos restaurant as the house musician Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights.

He was predeceased, in addition to his parents, by a brother Roger E. Fiesel.

Surviving James to cherish his memory is his wife of 30 years, Jeanne; a daughter Teresa (Terri) Rabon and her husband Michael and a grandson, Alex Rabon.

Graveside services will be held at 10:00 AM, Friday, August 21, 2020 at Hillcrest Cemetery with entombment to follow. Covid 19 precautions and guidelines are followed at the cemetery.

Goldfinch Funeral Home, Beach Chapel is in charge of the arrangements.

“ Tommy was always so sweet and polite. Greeted me by name and always asked about my daughter. We will miss hearing his gentle playing in the corner. Prayers of comfort for the family and all those who will be impacted by the loss. Thank you for your service, Tommy!

“ The first person you saw & the last one you said good night to at Pacino's. Enjoyed listening to his music while we had dinner. He played soft enough that you didn't have to speak loudly to chat but loud enough to enjoy the music. For sure it will be a void at Pacino's. So very sorry for your loss. Prayers to his family.

“ Every visit to Pacino's began with a serenade from Tommy as we entered with our large family. He would spot our grandson, Bo, and start playing "Puff the Magic Dragon" for him. It is no wonder that Bo always wanted to go to Pacino's because he loved Tommy. He will be greatly missed and well-remembered. Norma Marshall

“ Dick and I, with my whole family are so sorry to hear of Tommy's death. We shared the love of music. Tommy knew I was listening to him during dinner with the tapping of my head and heart. The only time we disagreed was the score of Lala Land, I loved it and he didn't. He will be missed but will be kept in our prayers.
