“ Sis, We were sad to hear of Jim's passing but now he is with our Lord. We believe he was a brave guy to go so many years with this battle but he was very fortunate to have you by his side. We will miss his smile and presence. Our love and prayers are with you and your family. God Bless. Your Friends,

Sid and Mary Anne

“ Sis, we are saddened by the news of Jim's passing. What a wonderful, bright spirit he was, always smiling and happy to be your friend. We are sorry for your troubles, but we are also glad that Jim was part of our lives. Jim was a gift to us all. Love you and hope you find peace in the coming days. The Conlin Family

“ I'm so sorry for your loss. Please accept my deepest sympathy. May you find comfort from your memories, as well as God's word the bible. Why do people we love die? Romans 5:12 says: "That is why, just as through one man (Adam) sin entered into the world and death through sin, and thus death spread to all men because they had all sinned." How loving of God to promise what is found at Revelation 21:4 which says, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.”

“ Maureen and family, I'm so sorry to hear of Jim's passing. I worked with Jim in the Bristol Post Office waaaay back when. I always remember Jim's great smile and kind words when you needed one. He was a great friend. We lost contact after you moved. I was shocked to see the obit this morning. He is in good hands now....GOD LOVES MARINES. God Bless you all.

“ To the Gauvin Family, Jim was fun and delightful through our high school years. He was never a bully; always embracing everyone regardless of his/her identity and never having a bad word for anyone. May the Good Lord Bless and Keep Jim. May He lift his countenance upon Jim, and give Jim's soul everlasting peace. - Adriane Gilder, Class of 1967.
