“ Chief Good was my first boss in the Air Force in 1962. Throughout the next 53 years we would exchange Christmas Cards (Mrs. Good prepared and sent..smile) Whenever I did not send a card, before the New Year arrived, I'd get a call "Airman Dillon, where is my card?" This only happened a coupla times; his incentive to me with Christmas Cards, well just about the same as his incentive when I was his airman clerk at Forbes AFB. I will miss talking to him on the phone. I did get to see him last summer, and I swear, he could grab a wrench and go fix a RB-47 Aircraft. Mrs. Good, Sharon, James and Christopher, please let time and prayer help you recover from this. Chief Jim would want nothing less than for you all to be happy again soon.

Love from

PS: Thanks to Chief Good for instilling a good work ethic and good family practices over the year. I attribute my successful Air Force career to him. He guided me to Chief also.

I was always his airman.....
