

James Halford

January 1, 1946 - August 27, 2014

James David Halford

Georgetown, SC

James David Halford, "Jimmy", passed away peacefully on Wednesday, August 27, 2014.

Born in Iron Station, NC, Jimmy was married to his wife Faye J. Harrelson Halford, faithfully for 43 years. He also was an amazing father to his daughter Andie. As a resident of DeBrodieu Colony, Georgetown, SC, he enjoyed North Inlet fishing, oceanside with his family, and happy hour by the creek. An avid duck hunter, he also liked to deer, dove, and quail hunt (and always had his black labs by his side). He served in the US Navy for 2 years, was the President of The T.J Harrelson Roofing and Painting Company in Columbia, SC, until retirement. He was a member of Pawleys Island Community Church.

Survivors include his wife Faye J. Halford of Georgetown; his daughter Andie Robinson and son-in-law Randall of Pawleys Island; grandchildren; Parker, Peyton, Miles and Matt Robinson; a sister Betty H. Jones and a brother Alex Lee Luke.

A Memorial Service will be held 11:00 am, Friday, September 5, 2014 at the Pawleys Island Community Church Chapel.

Our family would like to extend our deepest gratitude, to Tideland's Hospice House, of Georgetown, SC. We are so thankful to the staff, nurses, and volunteers, who took the most amazing care of us all.

Jimmy, never met a stranger, was loved by many, and will be missed by all. "If you couldn't find him, all you had to do was look outside."

The family requests that memorial donations be made to Tideland's Hospice, 2591 N. Fraser St, Georgetown, SC 29440 or to Pawleys Island Community Church, 10304 Ocean Hwy, Pawleys Island, SC 29585.

Sign a guestbook at www.goldfinchfuneralhome.com

Goldfinch Funeral Home, Beach Chapel is in charge of the arrangements.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss. Please accept my deepest sympathy. May you find comfort from your memories, as well as God's word the bible. Why do people we love die? Romans 5:12 says: "That is why, just as through one man (Adam) sin entered into the world and death through sin, and thus death spread to all men because they had all sinned." How loving of God to promise what is found at Revelation 21:4 which says, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.”

“ I have known "Halford" (as we all called him) from Myrtle Beach days of long ago. What a wonderful guy and could he ever make us laugh! A "beach" reunion somehow will not be the same without him there. He will truly be missed.
To his family, please accept my deepest condolences and may your wonderful memories help sustain you through this difficult time.
RIP, my friend.

“ Sincere and heartfelt condolences to Jimmy's family and also to the many, many loving friends who feel the pain of his passing. I was fortunate to meet and get to know Jimmy In 1992 when some friends and I put together a Dark Horseman reunion.. In a moment it was easy to recognize that he was a person of substance. He stood out.

I may still have a photo of Jimmy and Faye, a handsome couple, under the Horseman arch I will forward if I'm able to find it.

Over the years we didn't see each other often but it was always great to share updates of blessings God had given us both..

God bless you all. Sincerely, Bill Fincher

“ Faye J,

When I head out to the Dove field today I'll have Jimmy with me in my thoughts and prayers.....We had many good times.....There are hundreds of stories, most of which I can't share.....Jimmy was a true individual.....He could have been the main character of books by Steinbeck, Fitzgerald or Hemingway....He will truly be missed by all who had the privilege to know him....

Our deepest condolences to the Halford family....

“ FayJ, I remember your first date with Jimmy. I remember all the fun times, I remember when he left to go in the service, I remember when you went out to visit and then you married the love of your life. I have always loved both of you and I can not even think about him being gone. My love to you and may God bless you with a special peace in knowing what a wonderful, loving wife you have been. Love and prayers and hugs to you and Andie. Jane Brantley Gantt
