

James H. "Buddy" Tyler

June 20, 1935 - July 1, 2009

LORIS... James Henry "Buddy" Tyler, age 74, of the Cane Branch Community passed away Wednesday, July 1, 2009 at Loris Community Hospital following an illness.

Mr. Tyler was born June 20, 1935 in Loris a son of the late John Frank Tyler and the late Annie Suggs Tyler. He was retired from the State of South Carolina where he was employed with the School Bus Maintenance Department, but he was always a farmer at heart. He was an active member of the Horry Electric Trust Board since it began in 1992. Mr. Tyler was a member of Cane Branch Baptist Church where he was a former Deacon and former Treasurer. He also served on the Cane Branch Cemetery Committee. He was a loving husband, Daddy, Pa-Pa, and brother, a trustworthy friend, and a faithful servant of God. Mr. Tyler was predeceased by one brother, Winston Franklin Tyler, Sr.

Mr. Tyler is survived by his wife: Mrs. Pearl Ray Tyler of Loris; three children: Teresa Stevens and her husband Wendy of Nakina, NC, Lila Tyler and her husband Glynn and Ricky Tyler and his wife Julie all of Loris; two brothers: Thomas Ethell Tyler and his wife Jenette and Johnny L. Tyler and his wife Sally all of Loris; two sisters: Eloise Jackson and her husband Jay and Carolyn Williams and her husband John Henry all of Dillon; nine grandchildren: Eric Gore and his wife Missy, Danielle Tyler, Anna Tyler, Ashley Tyler, Allison Tyler, Adam Tyler, Alexx Tyler, Coy Stevens, and Benjamin Stevens; and three great grandchildren: Madison Gilbert, Ean Gore, and Tyler

Gore.

The family will receive friends Friday, July 3, 2009 from 6-8 pm at Ward Funeral Home in Loris.

Funeral services will be held 11:00 am Saturday, July 4, 2009 from the Cane Branch Baptist Church with the Rev. Alvin Jackson, Rev. Paul Alford, and Rev. Jon Johnson officiating. Burial will follow in the Cane Branch Cemetery. Memorials may be sent to the Cane Branch Cemetery Fund, 760 Cane Branch Road, Loris, SC 29569.
