“ Nana Lynn, It's your Granddaughter i love you sooo very much. you are in my heart at all times, papa was and still is in my heart.Don't let nobody bring you down. Papa would not want you to cry all the time for the rest of your time. He'd want you to be happy. I love you so much and everyone is going to help you get through nobody is going to let you be hurtin anymore. Papa loved you very mush, he always told me that. Everytime you wouls tell him not to eat he'd always say i love that woman. He is at the gates of heaven waiting for you. Remeber that. Love you, Brittany your toots forever!!!##imported-begin##Brittany Richardson##imported-end##

“ Dear Lynn, I just wanted to let you know how saddened I was to read about Jimmy. Although we have rarely had an opportunity to see or speak with each other throughout all these years, I have never forgotten you because you truly were a friend to me. I know only God's love is greater than the love shared by you and Jimmy. As you and your family go through the days ahead, may His love embrace and guide you. “ Lynn, Randy and I were reading the Independent Tribune on Friday morning and we could not believe it. We love you and hope that you are doing OK. We think about you and Jim often and we have so many good memories about our times together in Walnut Hills and watching our families grow up together. We would like to hear from you when you have the chance. Again, we love you and your family. Please tell Jamie and Kristina that we said hello. God bless you and may you feel his love and healing hand during these times. Love, Chris & Randy Brown. Kenneth and Virginia send their love, thoughts and prayers.##imported-begin##Chris & Randy Brown##imported-end##
