“ I went spearfishing with James a number of times and he was one of the nicest , smartest people I have had the honor of knowing. Heaven is a little nicer with him up there. He was a problem solver and always willing to help out. I'll miss him.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Please accept my deepest sympathy. May you find comfort from your memories, as well as the comfort found in God's word the bible. In particular the scripture found at Revelation 21:4 which says, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away."

“ I am so sorry for your loss! I live in the Woodcreek community in Conway with my husband and two beautiful little girls! Our home is about 200 feet from where the plane crashed! I am heartbroken for your loss! It's an unimaginable tragedy! We have been praying for you and all the families involved! I never met James but he is truly a HERO to me! You could tell that he made such an effort in those last moments to land the plane where it would not hit any homes! I will forever be THANKFUL to him for the safety of my little girls, family and neighbors!

“ Dear Jim and Beth: I was so sadden to hear of the loss of Jim. My thoughts go out to all of the family. I truly believe he is in with our Lord.

John 14:1-3

Let not your heart be troubled; you believe in God, believe also in Me. In My Father's house are many mansions; if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you to Myself; that where I am, there you may be also

“ *What I will always remember about my nephew and friend, James Major Jr, is that he was so brilliant -- one of the smartest men I have ever known. He lived more in his 39 years than most people live in two lifetimes. He was the most giving person. He cared about family. He cared about his Grandmothers and Grandfathers. He helped his cousins get started in a career. My nephew was a good man and I will miss our talks on the phone together, mostly about the machine shop. Two machinists - one old, one young. Vaya con Dios my young friend, until we meet again --

“ Tina,
"I'm sorry for your loss" never seems enough, yet it means so much. It means I'm sorry that you're having to go through this difficult time in your life, it means I'm sorry there's nothing I can do to take the hurt away, it means I'm sorry and I can't imagine what you are having to deal with at this time. It also means that if you need it, there is always a shoulder to cry on, an ear to listen and arms to hug you ...just call me. May God's peace surround you and your family.

“ I remember James when he took his son to church the first time and they would sit in the balcony. It was a real blessing seeing a young man take his son to church and set an example for him. His mom & and dad were so proud of him then and as always in life & in business
A tragic loss for us all but another new guest in heaven waiting for us to join him.
God bless .

I only meet you a few times a number of years ago but I remember how sweet and fun you were to be around. Edward our son was very fond of James and has spoken about him several times in the past.
