

James Michael Legler, Sr.

June 6, 2005

James Michael Legler, Sr., age 65 of Poplar Church Road, died Monday, June 6, 2005 at his residence. Mr. Legler was born in Rochester, New York a son of the late Eugene B. and Gladys Van Nortwick Legler. He was a member of St. James Catholic Church, member of the Knights of Columbus, member of The Grand Strand Senior Golf Group and was a Washington Redskin Fan. Mr. Legler retired from Eckerd Drug Store in Conway and was employed by Burroughs and Chapin Company and Myrtle Beach National. Mr. Legler was a US Marine Corp Veteran. Surviving are his wife: Gretchen Legler of Aynor; one son: James Michael Legler, Jr. of Pinellas Park, Fla.; two daughters: Gayle Legler Wood and husband Stephen Eric of Fort Mill, SC. and Sharon Legler Kluttz and husband H. Ray of Charlotte, NC; two grandchildren: Lauren Wood and Jennah Wood; one brother: Peter T. Legler of Virginia Beach, Va. and one sister: Carole Hennessey of Chula Vista, Calif. A funeral mass will be held 12:30 PM Friday at St. James Catholic Church, with the Father Rick LaBrecque officiating. Directed by Goldfinch Funeral Home Conway, Chapel. The family will receive friends from 6-8 PM Thursday at the funeral home, with a prayer services to be held at 7:00 PM Memorials may be made to St. James Catholic Church Knights of Columbus "Operation Hope Fund" 1071 Academy Dr., Conway SC 29526.

Tribute Wall

“ We will always love him and we will miss him. He was the best person that we ever knew. We will always remember the cruises, Redskin games, State games, and every vacation that we shared. He is and was a GREAT father and grandfather. He is and was loved very much! With MUCH Love, Ray Ray and Sha Sha and Ryne, Gaby, and Packer###imported-begin##Sharon and Ray###imported-end##

June 14, 2005 at 12:00 AM

“ Mrs. legler, I want you to know how special your husband is to me and marty. He is the one that would egg us on to get together. We was hardheaded but now that we are married I am glad he egged us on. We will always be thankful for his support and I hope our marriage is as happy and long as yalls was. Keep the faith and may God carry you for as long as the day is new. love always, tonya and marty dubose###imported-begin##tonya and marty dubose###imported-end##

June 09, 2005 at 12:00 AM

“ My condolences to family. I worked with Jim off & on over several years.###imported-begin##Gerald McClure###imported-end##

June 08, 2005 at 12:00 AM

“ I totally agree with Jim's granddaughters, Lauren & Jennah. Their grandfather was one of the nicest people I have ever known. But, personally, I think the "Candy Man" is playing golf up There. As a matter of fact, he's probably already busy organizing a senior golf group. Don't forget Dickie, Jim. He needs the exercise! Your sister in law, Betty Ann###imported-begin##Elizabeth Seeley###imported-end##

June 08, 2005 at 12:00 AM

“ Grandpa Jim was the nicest person you ever would meet. We love him and we'll miss him. But we know he's in a better place fishing probably.###imported-begin##Lauren & Jennah Wood###imported-end##

June 08, 2005 at 12:00 AM