

James P Murphy

March 3, 1946 - July 3, 2022

James P. Murphy was born in New York City on 3/3/46 to Marguerite Murphy and Eugene Murphy.

He worked in the drug rehabilitation field for multiple decades saving lives and lobbying for funding for additional programs to provide services to people effected by substance abuse.

He attended Columbia University and was on the Board of Education in Norwalk Connecticut before relocating to Murrells Inlet upon retirement. He adored his family and had the ability to make you laugh with his engaging charisma and stories.

He is survived by his loving, devoted wife, and best friend Leslie Murphy, his children Ryan Murphy and Allyson Murphy, his grandson Evan Murphy, and his loving sister Bette Ann Reder.

“ *Joe and Andrea Licek want to extend out condolences on Jim’ s passing.
Joe and I were just remembering that soon after we moved to Granite Dr. My car got stuck in a snow bank near your house. Donna Sandburg, you and Jim helped us shovel my car free. I never forgot what nice neighbors you both were.*
