“ I met Jerry in the third grade, and the rest of his (Halifax County) family several years later. Sadly, I never met his wife or children, but just know you are remarkable folks. Jerry was truly one of the best men from one of the most kind and caring families I have ever known. I feel sadness at his passing but smile as I recall him. Take some measure of comfort in knowing that the good Jerry did continues to move through the world, and he stays with us in that way. God be with you all.

“ I'm so sorry to hear about Jerry's passing. I knew Jerry through grade school and high school. He was the kind of kid that everybody liked. I remember one winter when he had a sledding accident and was out of school for a long time. The last time I saw him was about 27 years ago and he still had that laugh. Jerry was a good person and I know his family will miss him.
Rest in peace old friend.

“ To the Rowland Family:

In this difficult time in your life, may you find comfort in God's Word, the Bible. James 4:8 encourages; "Draw close to God, and He will draw close to you."

“ Mr Jerry, Heaven has just gained another angel. Jo you were blessed to have him as long as you did. Just knowing you all for so long, and watching your boys grown into fine young men has been the greatest pleasure God has given me. Please know our love is with you and the entire family. God Bless you always. Love, Dot and Win McCracken
