

James Rue Moorman

May 4, 2009

James R. "Jim" Moorman, age 94, husband of Mary H. Moorman, died Monday, May 4, 2009 at The Lakes at Litchfield, Pawleys Island, SC. Mr. Moorman, a devout Christian, who was a long-time Chicago-area resident, lived for years in Hinsdale and Willowbrook, IL. He retired as President, Foell Packing Company. He served as President, National Meat Canners Association. He was a member of the Lawn Masonic Lodge of Illinois and the Union Church of Hinsdale. He is survived by his wife of sixty-eight years. Also surviving are two sons: William and his wife Bobbie of Arlington, VA; Richard and his wife Sarah of Myrtle Beach, SC. Mr. Moorman was preceded in death by his son James R. Moorman, whose wife Denise Bunny Moorman of Willowbrook, IL, survives. Mr. Moorman is survived by three grandchildren: Kelly Sadler of Atlanta, GA and her husband, Steve; Jaime Moorman of Willowbrook, IL; and John Moorman and his wife Anna of Sumter, SC. Also surviving are two great grandchildren. An online guest book is available at www.goldfinchfuneralhome.com. A memorial service will be conducted at The Lakes at Litchfield at a later date. Memorial remembrances should be donated to the charity of choice.

Tribute Wall

“ NULL##imported-begin##Peter Saltzstein##imported-end##

---

May 09, 2009 at 12:00 AM