“ I am so sorry for your loss. It's not easy saying goodbye to someone you love. I'm sure its encouraging to know that that goodbye is only temporary. Jehovah God promises us that we will be able to see our dead loved ones again. (John 5:28, 29) That scripture always gives me hope during difficult times such as this and I pray it does the same for you.

“ Jane and I are sorry for the loss of your father, brother and Christian loved one. J.C. was a viable member of our Sunday School Class who was always ready to give his faith for our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. He not only gave us his faith, he lived it. His influence on others will be missed,, and his absence in body, allows us to know that today J.C. has reached his goal. He is living in the presence of his Lord and Master. May God bless his family and loved ones during this time of grief. We would both like to be at his funeral but we are down with the flu bug. Our prayers will be with all of you.

“ To the Family: I am so sorry for your loss. The death of a loved one is never an easy matter for any of us to cope with, but we do have the assurance of our Heavenly Father that he will comfort us in all our tribulations. (Psalms 55:22) Death was never a part of the Creator’s purpose for mankind, so, he has furnished a guarantee by means of his Son, Christ Jesus, that we will see our loved ones again. (Acts 24:15; John 5:28) I pray that you may draw comfort from these words.

“ I’m sorry for the lost of your family member and a friend, and to give comfort I would like to give a message from God’s word the Bible. When someone we love passes away it’s only natural that we want to see them again. But the Bible teaches at (Isaiah 25:8) that the true God, Jehovah will get rid of death. Also that those who have passed away will be resurrected from God’s Son Jesus Christ mentioned at (John 5:28, 29). And with God’s original purpose those who have passed away will be resurrected as humans on a paradise earth, (Psalm 37:29) that says “And the righteous themselves will possess the earth and reside forever upon it”. And I hope this gives much comfort to you and makes you happy to know that Jehovah God will get rid of our enemy death forever(Psalm 83:18).
