“ The last time I saw Jamie was At Skylar’s wedding, and he gave me a great big hug, as usual. I still remember his baked ziti and pizza phase...Sawyer is just like him in that way and it always made me smile to think of the similarity. May you find comfort in his memory and peace in the days to come.

“ Charee, Jim, Tara, Sasha and extended family: We are very sad to hear of Jamie's passing. He was far too young, and we know how much he will be missed. He, our son Tim and Ryan D. spent hours together biking, visiting one another, hitting the beach and playing sports. Always made sure to have Kraft Macaroni and Cheese on hand for his visits. He had the sweetest smile, and we loved having him around. Time passes and people lose touch; but we will always remember him fondly. Our deepest condolences to his entire family. May your memories comfort you in your journey through grief. God Bless each of you.
