“ Dear Saunders Family, I am so sorry about the loss of your 10-year old son. Although, I did not know your son, with the loss of my 7-year old daughter many years ago, I know some of your pain. He sounded like a wonderful blessing. Know that you are in the hearts and prayers of many that you do not even know. God Bless.##imported-begin##Debbie Harwell##imported-end##

“ We have been praying for you and your family from the moment we heard of James death on Saturday and words simply cannot express our sorrow at the loss of your precious son. James and his fellow scouts have been such wonderful mentors to the younger cubs like my son Christopher Young/Bears Pack 396. The closeness of this group of boys has made such an impression on us and we have always been thankful that these boys together in their energetic and funny ways have set a meaningful example of friendship, respect, responsibility, and leadership for their younger counterparts. James has been a blessing and will be missed deeply by his Scout family. Our family will continue to hold your family in our hearts and prayers and trust that our faithful Lord will hold you close at this tragic time.##imported-begin##Andrea and Rob Young##imported-end##

“ Our hearts go out to your family and you all will remain in our prayers. We did not know your son, but our son, Matthew Archer is in 1st grade at Waccamaw Elementary and he joined the Tiger Cubs this year in Murrells Inlet so we know of James through the cub scout group. What a wonderful, precious boy he was from everything we have known of him. May God bless you and your family in the days to come and send His Holy Spirit to give you comfort. You will remain in our prayers. Cathy & Rick Archer Pawleys Island, SC##imported-begin##Cathy & Rick Archer##imported-end##
