“ I'm sorry to hear about Jamie's death. And since words can't erase the hurt th death causes to the ones left behind, I'd like to share a few scriptures from the Bible that comfort me each time I suffer a loss of a loved one. John 5:28-29 promises us a resurrection, Psalms 37:29 tells us that we will live forever here on earth and Rev 21:3-4 promises that there will be no more death, sickness or pain. Of course it still hurts not to have them here with me but I know that God did not take them from me and he promises to reunite us again in the near future when the time is right. I hope you experience the same comfort that I do from God's promises in His Word, the Bible. Sincerely, Dee Bishop##imported-begin##dee bishop##imported-end##

“ Mr. and Mrs. Brown, I am so very sorry for your loss. Jamie was a friend to me as well as our daughter Chelsi. I remember she was an animal lover at an early age. She enjoyed growing up in O/L and all those kids enjoyed each other. Sincerely, Gail Jenkins Z16##imported-begin##Gail V. Jenkins##imported-end##

“ Dear Joe & JoAnn, We are so saddened to hear of Jamie's passing. It is a tragedy beyond words. I have two memories of her. Her love of animals, bless her for that. and a gift bag she gave me on the last day of our vacation. It was just such a sweet gesture, it was so like her. With sincere sympathy, Jackie & Earl Underwood##imported-begin##Jackie & Earl Underwood##imported-end##
