

Jamie Graham Craddock

August 22, 1946 - June 16, 2024

Jamie Graham Craddock of Murrells Inlet, SC, died surrounded by her children on June 16, 2024. Jamie was born in Prattville, Alabama, on August 22, 1946, to Frances and James Graham. Growing up, Jamie loved playing with her siblings Sarah, Philip and Edna, and, especially loved learning about growing plants of all types and had a bona fide green thumb. Jamie held various administrative positions including her last job running and bookkeeping for Inlet Convenience & Fishing with her late husband, Tom Craddock, in Murrells Inlet, until it closed some years ago. Jamie taught her children the importance of kindness to others, hard work, a love of nature and the ability to laugh. She enjoyed going on walks with her grandchildren and playing scrabble with her family. Jamie was also an avid reader and enjoyed many genres of fiction and non-fiction. Jamie is preceded in death by her late husband Thomas Craddock, her parents James and Frances, her sisters Sarah Wilson and Edna Church and her sons-in-law John Beane and James Williams. Jamie is survived by her brother Phillip Graham (Carolyn), her three children Aleisa Beane, Tommy Thorn (Lori) and Rebecca Chapman (Bill), her grandchildren Chris (Candace), Jeremy, Katie, Sam (Ana), Helen, and Jayme; her nieces Jessica and Kristi; nephews Billy, Carl, Johnny and James, and her great grandchildren Halla, Teddy, and Grace; her brothers-in-law Charles Craddock (Jane) and John Craddock.

A Celebration of Life is pending at this time.
