“ Jane Bartlett provided pre-marriage counseling and officiated at our wedding on September 25, 1976. This may have been her first wedding ceremony. The ceremony took place in Graniteville on my parents front yard. Debbie and I were blessed to have Jane share with us her faith during this wonderful time.

“ Jane, I just came back from your "Celebration" at the Williamstown Church. How much you will be missed in so many lives. People spoke about you and your life with love and humor. That's you.. I did not get up and tell everyone how you loved to play the lottery and would do the models "pivot" just before you went in to do the Sunday sermon to look at the winning numbers on the store front to see if you won the lottery. Noel and I got such a laugh. Thank you for sharing your interesting stories about your trips and life in general. Especially the Great Wall of China and your Angus' adventures. Now you are up there looking down and watching over all of us left here. Enjoy the peace.

“ Our family has many, many fond memories of Jane. She spent quite a bit of time at our house when she was in Williamstown and we were fortunate we had the opportunity to know her so well. We will miss her humor and joyful manner. We all lost a wonderful friend. Our sympathies go out to her family. She will always be remembered.

“ Jane was my lifeline as I fed off her sense of humor after my husband died. We used to talk on the phone most every night when she was still in Williamstown and I would automatically turn my minor crisis of the day into an amusing anecdote before the phone call. It helped me through a difficult time. We have laughed a lot over the years and I will miss her perspective, her humor, and her friendship. My heart goes out to you all.
