“ *To the family of Jane Ramseur , it is with memories of Memories that I send this note to you as your Jane welcomed me to the area as a transplant and avid collector of old things. As I settled in I was pleased to become one of the dealers at Memories and came to know the Ramseur family. It is with sadness that I send this note to you with the hopes that your memories of a life well lived will sustain you. Thanks for the "Memories" and the "Old House" too.
Respectfully, Charlene Atkinson*

“ We loved Jane Ramseur, our angel who was here on earth. She fought several hard battles with cancer and finally succumbed to the last episode. She was a very strong yet gracious woman. Now she's welcomed as an angel in heaven, where she joins Bob, Harriet, Maria, Fred, and Van--most of her family, again. She and Bob were always a wonderful presence in our lives and we miss their loving grace and caring. I know she has found the peace and comfort she had been searching for, but we all miss her dearly. God Bless, Jane.

“ Mrs. Jane will always be in my heart. She was a pleasure to work with at the Museum. Many times I was comforted by her sharing a God given experience with me when I was facing difficult decisions in my on life. The world would be a better place if more of us would follow her foot steps. Wayne Skipper and family.
