“ Dear Carlo Family, I did not know your mother personally, but her son, Father Carlo just said the funeral mass for my mother, Helen Marie Lacey, on Saturday at St. Michael's. I appreciated the beautiful mass that was said for my mother and wanted to extend my sincerest sympathy to your entire family during this difficult time. My mother was also a teacher and I know that Mrs. Carlo touched many people's lives. Most Sincerely, Corinne PortÃ©##imported-begin##Corinne PortÃ©##imported-end##

“ Dear. Fr. Ray, My family sends our deepest condolences in the loss of your mother. You should find comfort in the fact that you were so devoted and took such wonderful care of her. I can only hope my own sons will be as devoted. Your mother went to her eternal rest knowing how much you loved her! I am sorry I am up in NC preparing for my surgery first thing Monday morning, and will be unable to attend her services. My love and prayers are with you at this difficult time, and your mother's peaceful rest are also. You were the best son any mother could have. Take comfort in that, and that you did everything for her for so long. God bless You! Love, Barbara Miller and Family###imported-begin###Barbara Miller###imported-end##
