“ To the family: So very sorry to read of Mrs. Jones' passing today. I often thought of her, but like most of my good intentions, you know what becomes of them. Please accept my sincerest condolences for your loss. I am certain she is in a far better place now, with her beloved John and her parents. You are all in my thoughts.

Janet was the mentor who provided support and encouragement at the beginning of my career. The knowledge she shared I carried with me throughout my years of teaching. What an extraordinary person she was, and how proud she was of all of her family. Thoughts and prayers are with you.
