“ I am at a loss for words right now. My deepest sympathy to you both, Mike and Michelle. Your mother was such a bright spot in many of my days. No matter how awful things seemed, your mom and I would make the best of it! We worked for years together and honestly, if it wasn't for Jan's smart comments, work would have definately been a bore! I can almost hear your mother now, she's surrounded by friends and family having a drink and making everyone laugh their heads off! Good-bye my friend.##imported-begin##Christy Zimmerman##imported-end##

“ Dear Mike and Michelle, I don't think anything has shocked me more than seeing your mom's name in the obituaries today. She was my best friend for 11 years and I have never stopped missing her since she moved. We spent hours on the phone even though we worked together. Your mom was the most funny, uplifting person I have ever known. Taking care of her house while she was visiting one of you, picking her up at the airport, babysitting your kids when your grandparents passed away. The memories just keep coming. JB was an awesome women and you both are very lucky to have had her as your mother. My deepest sympathies to you.##imported-begin##Deb Wolfe##imported-end##

“ Dear Mike and Michelle, Your mom was an awesome friend. Let's celebrate her life by remembering the good times. Remember how she scolded your dad the Saturday she came home from work at noon and found him and Ron digging up the rhubarb at the end of your lot behind the garage. Your dad explained that he was giving it to Ron because she never used it. She said there was a good reason for that - it belonged to the neighbors! Ron brought it home anyway and planted it in our back yard. She laughed often in later years that stolen rhubarb grows best! Then remember how we all laughed when the neighbor's horse took a ride on your bright yellow slip-n-slide. And then there were all those summertime trips to Cedar Point with the National Machinery. And remember the Bar-B-Q's that Mike cooked? You liked to be a chef even back then. And the Christmas nights you spent in Tiffin in sleeping bags on the front room floor. And more recently our trips to Myrtle Beach. Janet was so proud of the both of you and your families. You are always welcome at our home, as we have been at Janet's. Affectionately,
