“ We first met Janet and Mel some months before we moved into Willbrook Plantation at a meeting to establish a “couples golf” group, 22 years ago. There followed many fun Sundays of “interesting “ golf followed by casual (and sometimes raucous) dinners either at a restaurant, the beach, or the Club House. Janet became quite “passionate “ about the game. She thoroughly enjoyed the many and varied adventures that took she and Mel to all points of the world and we enjoyed hearing of them. We were shocked and saddened to hear of Janets passing. Heartfelt condolences to Mel and the family she so dearly loved.
