

Janet Ann Woodbury

February 10, 1933 - November 15, 2023

Janet Ann Woodbury, 90, of Surfside Beach, South Carolina, passed away unexpectedly on Nov 15, 2023.

Janet was born on Feb 10, 1933 as Janet Ann Gallagher to George and Margaret Gallagher in Danbury, Connecticut. Janet spent much of her childhood in Brewster, New York. As a young woman, Janet was adventurous and traveled overseas with the US State Department where one day, in the skies over Laos, she “took over” a small commuter plane with her personality and packages, therefore, forcing a young British man, Francis George Woodbury, on assignment from Great Britain, to sit elsewhere during his regular flight.

Although Francis (Frank) Woodbury was annoyed that he was displaced from his usual seat, he was immediately drawn to Janet. As the story goes, Frank spent a long time convincing Janet to meet him for a date. Frank always told the story with a twinkling smile.

Janet Ann Gallagher and Francis George Woodbury were married in Germany and they remained married for life.

Janet was predeceased by Francis George Woodbury, her lifelong love and husband. Janet is survived by her two sons, Michael Francis Woodbury and Bruce Malcolm Woodbury, her daughter, Jennifer Ann Woodbury and her sister, Joan Catherine Ward.

There will be no public service. If you should feel inclined to do something in Janet's honor, helping a stray or shelter kitty would be the best way to honor her memory, through her love for cats.
