“ Terry and Jamie, So sorry to hear about Janette s passing..I have kept in touch with her thru Facebook and I know she has struggled with her health over the past several years..She is now at rest and pain free with Our heavenly Father. She was so good to us kids on the block.She even baby sat for me and my younger sisters years ago..she was a very special friend and neighbor..

“ Sweet Janette! You have fought the ultimate battle with strength, dignity, perseverance, love of others and your faith in our Saviour Jesus Christ!! You have been an inspiration to so many and I know you are at peace rejoicing with Jesus and others who have gone before you! I will always miss you and think about you with love! Will always remember the yearly trips your family made to NJ in the summers and stayed with us as kids! With Love until we meet again!! ❤️❤️❤️❤️

Sam and Jamie wish we could have been there for you today. Janette has been such a beautiful friend since Jamie and our son Jason were born. She put up such a valiant battle with sickness. She maintained her beautiful spirit, light in her eyes and warm laugh. Pray that you both will keep these precious memories in your heart in this time of sorrow. I loved her and will greatly miss her.
