“ To the Family of Ms. Janice D. Lupo: My name is Carolyn Cutner, one of Jehovah’s Witnesses. I am writing you because I heard of Ms. Lupo’s death. Even though I am not able to be there in person, I would like to express my deepest and sincerest condolences. I would also like to share with you a few words of comfort from the Holy Scriptures. I know that the death of a loved one can bring much pain and sorrow; but you are not left without hope.--1 Thessalonians 4:13,14 Our loving, Heavenly Father has promised you a time when you will be able to see Ms. Lupo again.--Acts 24:15; John 5:28,29 Just knowing this will hopefully bring you some comfort during your time of bereavement. You also have God’s promise that one day you won’t even have to worry about losing ANY of your loved ones again to this terrible “enemy”, death!-- Revelation 21:3,4; 1 Corinthians 15:26 Again, I am terribly sorry for your loss. I truly hope that you will be able to find some relief through God’s Word, knowing that Ms. Lupo and others you’ve lost in death have a chance to live again. You can be confident that whatever God says, He CAN and WILL do!--Isaiah 55:11; Titus 1:2 I’ll keep you and the rest of the family in my prayers. Sincerely Yours, Carolyn Cutner Jehovah’s Witness##imported-begin##Carolyn Cutner##imported-end##

“ Janice had intelligence and common sense, a rare find in people. I always enjoyed conversing with her and getting her take on the subject. She was my ?go to? person when I absolutely had to have something and when it had to be right. She made coming to work enjoyable. She was a friend. I shall miss her! I will always have fond memories of her and cherish the time I was able to spend with her. This world will miss the qualities she possessed.##imported-begin##Ed Chrisco##imported-end##
