“ I am very sorry to hear of this lost. This was the most incredible woman I have ever meet in my life. She was a brave, loving woman, she will be missed by every person that was fortunate enough to know her. I cleaned her house & many a times had spent 6 hours for a 3 hr. job just because we enjoyed just chit-chatting about what ever. She taught me so many things about life just through her past experience & I will cherrish all that we shared. I know she was very proud of Robin & her family & deeply enjoyed all the times she spent @ this home for oysters & other cookouts. I pray that I will meet up with again when my time comes. With all my deepest sympothy & more love than could ever express. I will miss the Thrusdays of laughing & visiting with her. I love her dearly. I know God receive a special angel-just do not understand why he took her so early?###imported-begin##Tammy Elliott###imported-end##

“ I am writing to share my sincere sympathies to your family. Mabeleen Edge is my mother-in-law. She shared with my husband, Sandy, and me the news of your loss this morning. I know that this was unexpected for you and that Mrs. Page was very beloved. While she will certainly be missed, I hope you take comfort in knowing there are many prayer requests that your family will feel peace and comfort during this time. Sincerely, Becky Edge###imported-begin###Becky Edge###imported-end##
