My sweet, handsome, funny, loving boy. My heart is shattered. You were Mama and Daddy's 1st born grandchild and mine and Aunt Weeza's 1st born nephew. I cant make any sense of this at all. I miss you so very much. I am thankful for the wonderful close relationship that you and I had. Even more thankful that I have NO regrets when it comes to you. Nothing left unsaid or no unfinished business. You were a bright light in this dark world and in our family. You made us all smile and laugh by just being you. You fought to win the war against cancer and kicked it's butt with such grace and dignity. You gave full credit to the Lord for your healing from that dreaded disease. You loved and lived life everyday. You taught me more lessons than I probably ever taught you. For that, I am grateful. Although we only had you for 32 VERY SHORT years, you left your mark on everyone's lives. Your rows may have been short, but they were plowed oh so deep. I thank you for loving me the way you did. For always remembering my birthday, for always saving me a hug and some sugar, for always making me feel beautiful when I was down on myself, for always being my "first baby." You will forever be in my heart and always on my mind. I have no clue how we as a family will get through this, BUT GOD. I am sad, angry, devastated, and so many other emotions rolled into one....but most of all.....I have been blessed beyond measure to of had the chance to share 32 years of my life with you. Save me a place at Jesus feet son....I'll be along after while. <3

“ It has been a pleasure working with Jarvis these past years. Always smiling, laughing, and one to notice the little things in life. He was passionate about his work, so much so that every Monday would come asking if he was still #1 on rotation 😊 He left his mark on many and will be truly missed. My deepest sympathy goes out to his loving family and friends. RIP

“ Jarvis was a true gentleman. I had the privilege of going to Washington, DC and San Francisco with him and others these past two years. He brought his beautiful mother to San Francisco last September and what a blessing that must be. I can only tell the family that you have my very deepest sympathy and ask that God continue to bless you all. Jarvis lives and you will surely be together again one day. Carol B. Kim, Edgar, Jered and Jason and Bettye and Billy and the family, words cannot express the thoughts of my heart as we heard of the loss of Jarvis. My prayer is that you find comfort in God's loving arms and remember the good times we have shared with Jarvis in our lives. He was a loving, caring son, grandson, and nephew, he will be missed. I always reminded him of how beautiful that smile was and what a handsome young man he had become. Kim and Edgar, those boys have always held a special place in my heart. I remember the summer in Texas we played Sequence all week and ate Blue Bell ice cream and I carried them to ball games. Oh, what memories, I will never forget. Our love goes out to you all, and prayers for Gods peace.

*Love,
Aunt Susie and Uncle Cecil*

Jarvis was a true gentleman! One-in-a-million! He was incredibly talented, and a real pleasure to work with! I was with him in San Francisco in September, and the respect he showed his Mom, Kimberly was so sincere. My deepest sympathy goes out to Kim, and the entire family! Jarvis' Sheraton family loved and respected him so much! No words can describe what a tremendous loss this is! May God Bless the Stephens family, and comfort you all during this extremely difficult time. We will never forget you, Jarvis

“ Kim, Edgar, Jarod, Loving grandparents , & family, words can not express the Sadness & sympathy I feel for the loss of a young wonderful son, brother, grandson, family member, friends of many. Jarvis had a smile that would lite up a room, he had the kindness, respect of everyone he knew & loved. Jarvis, you will be missed & never forgotten .

Kimberly, you are a sister I never had, your family excepted & opened their hearts . I am blessed to have had the privilege of knowing both your sons & Jarvis showed nothing but kindness, respect ,& love that I will always cherish forever. I wish I had all the right words to comfort the loss of this wonderful young man during this terrible time. I love you & all the family are in my prayers .

Jarvis, you will hold a special place in my heart & I thank you for taking me to dinner last month, making me laugh & sharing all the great memories we shared when you were here in Texas as a youngster . When we are watching those Texans each year, you will be in my thoughts & I will remember that beautiful smile forever.
