“ My heartfelt prayers go out to Jason's family. It was only three or four short months ago that I saw Jason at Crabby Mike's with a huge smile on. I enjoyed speaking to him. Jason and I met in 4th grade and we had many classes together through graduation. I never saw Jason's face without a smile, and he will be very missed. I always enjoyed the enthusiasm he had for wrestling. I remember how much he and Paul Willis would get into it! He was a blessing to the spirits of all those around him. The loss hits close to home and reminds me of how valuable all the relationships we have with those around us are! May God be with the hearts of all those who love him.##imported-begin##Ryan Dodd##imported-end##

“ I would like to express my deepest sympathy for Jason's friends and family. I met Jason when I moved to the beach in 7th grade, and I enjoyed his sense of humor all the way through high school. Although I did not know him well, I know he will be greatly missed by the lives he touched along the way.##imported-begin##Toni Laurel Smith##imported-end##
