

Jason Moses

May 14, 1972 - August 2, 2011

Loris...Jason Kelly Moses, 39, died Aug. 2, 2011 at Loris Healthcare.

He was born May 14, 1972 in Asheville, N.C., son of Richard Henry Moses and Betty Stiles Moses.

He loved his family, his many friends, playing the guitar and good rock music. Jason formerly worked as a heating and air technician at Peppertree Resort in Cherry Grove.

He fought valiantly for many years against the ravages of ataxia. He was a true hero to all who knew him.

Including his mother of Myrtle Beach, he is survived by wife Tammy of Loris; son Collin Todd Moses of Loris; daughter Madeleine Fox Moses of Loris; stepdaughter Tammy Lynn Simmons of Loris; brothers Stephen Hughes of Florence, Jeffrey Hughes of Myrtle Beach, Gregory Hughes and wife Julie of Myrtle Beach and Mickey Hughes and wife Jeaneen of Little River and sister Rebecca Phagan and husband Daniel Phagan of Myrtle Beach.

Surviving nieces and nephews are Josh Phagan and Jennifer Phagan Curvan, Noah, Molly, Jade, Levi, Madison, Michael and Matthew Hughes and Nicholas, Brandon and Christopher Cerrito.

He is also survived by two special friends since childhood, Del Kiracofe and Terry Somers.

A celebration and remembrance of his life for friends and family was held Aug. 6 in the backyard of his sister's house, beside the pool where he was baptized exactly one year earlier.

The family requests that memorials be made to the National Ataxia Foundation, 2600 Fernbrook Lane, Suite 119, Minneapolis, MN 55447. Goldfinch Funeral Home, Loris chapel, was in charge of arrangements.

Tribute Wall

“ I am his son I love him so much

CollinMoses - September 13, 2017 at 10:47 AM