“ Dear Bob, Marsha, Bobby & family, Read in the Washington Post and wanted to let you know we are deeply saddened to learn about Jean's passing. We have thought of you all often and as we all know time has a way of passing by too fast. Trying to connect and keep up with those who shared a wonderful time in our life is often difficult. However, on many occasions we have talked about the memories of the Berwyn Hgts/ Greenbelt days which have always kept you all close in our hearts. We have tried to find out about you all from those at the Greenbelt American Legion....but again, lives move on. We hope that you can contact us so we can connect again 717 235-0826.
