“ Jeannine and I grew up down the block from each other and were the best of friends for many years. Although we lived far away from each other as adults, we never lost touch. She was the kind of friend who was always there for you, you never had to ask. I will never forget how she beat her first boyfriend up because he pushed me into a fence. In our teens, we would go cruising through Bensonhurst on weekend nights. In our 20's we chased a girl who stole her wallet, through Bay Ridge. She was in a car, we were not. We had so many laughs together and listening to the music at her funeral today, brought so many of those memories back. She is someone who touched my life always and will be forever loved and missed.

“ Jeannine and Scott wanted to move to SC during the pandemic in 2020. It was strange times for me as their Realtor. My daughter Ana helped me video call neighborhoods and several houses. Everything on their wishlist was for the dogs...the yard, the flooring, and most of all the size of the bedroom so their enormous bed would fit so the dogs could sleep with them. Once we narrowed it down, their best friends Bobbi and Dom gave their final approval. Their friendship was the sweetest! I loved following their adventures together exploring Conway, living in a "Hallmark movie!" They say that people who love animals as much as Jeannine did, they have the purest heart! I bet she's surrounded in Heaven my hundreds of dogs! Rest in peace!

“ I have so many throughout the years & grateful I do. Our nights at Carnival court, rollerskating in our 50's (you falling), our weekend trips, our love of Downtown, the long talks about everything, anything & nothing on my home from Charleston, our love for freestyle. We may not have always saw eye to eye on some things but we loved eachother. I knew I could always count on you. Thanks for the memories. Love you forever my BFF.
