“ Dearest All, So very shocked to read about Jeff's homegoing!! I don't know if you'll remember me, but I along with my family went to Harmony Church with Linda, Don and Jeff when Bob Norris was pastor and also seems like yesterday that I had just chatted with all of you at the Grand Strand Mall, when I come to my condo @ Surfside Beach. My continued prayers to each and everyone and hoping that each day will be a little brighter knowing that Jeff would say "Everything is Alright" with me and Jesus!!! God Bless You All.....##imported-begin##Janet B Beasley##imported-end##

“ To Mrs. Head and Family, Jeff was the representative from Pipeline Supply for the Town of Jamestown for the past 4 years. When he stopped by the office we not only talked business but we also talked about family and mutual intrests. That was what made him special, you got to know Jeff. He will be sadly missed by all of us.##imported-begin##Jamestown Water Dept.##imported-end##

“ Dear Ms. Head, Like anyone who ever knew Jeff, I was very saddened to hear of his passing. What a quality person he was. He is largely present in the fond memories of my childhood. Please know that you and your family are in our thoughts and prayers. I hope that you can find consolation for your loss as you continue to enjoy life with your beautiful granddaughters. My new family and I would love for you to visit us anytime here in the Colorado mountains. You might consider joining Dad and Barbara on one of their trips. “ Cheryl, Payton and Lauryn, Our sincere sympathies, along with prayer and support are extended to you. Anything you need that we can do for you, we offer that! Cheryl, you never hesitated to help me with all of those Bake Sales and around our school. It is our turn to help you. Jeff had a special gift of knowing how to make others feel welcome. When Billy was shy about going to "Couples Bunco", Jeff made him feel welcome. When they would bump into each other at school, he always extended a handshake. With Billy being rather shy, that was huge to him. They stood in the back of the cafeteria during the last awards ceremony in January. Billy commented on how he and Jeff talked a bit. However little that was to Jeff, it was huge to Billy. Billy is quite often a "tag along" with me to "my" functions and usually blends in with the wallpaper on purpose most of the time, but Jeff made a lasting impression that will not be forgotten and it will be missed! And now for Mallorie. She wants Payton to know she feels so bad for her. She prayed for all of you to us before dinner. She did not know what to say or do when she saw Payton in the receiving line and she regrets not giving her a hug at that moment. She wishes she did. I didn't know she felt like that or I would have talked her through it. It is a shame that they have not been in each others classrooms since what, Kindergarten? Your kids are so beautiful and so sweet! Again, our deepest sympathyies. Much love, Holly & Billy Roesing##imported-begin##Holly, Billy, Miranda & Mallorie Roesing##imported-end##

“ Linda, Cheryl, and children: It really saddened me about Jeff and my thoughts and prayers are with you guys. Let me say that Jeff is one of my favorite people to ever worked along with me at Jack's Shoes in Sumter. We had some great times together there. I remember how much he loved the Georgia Bulldogs and we would constanly pick at each other me being a Clemson tiger fan. Hope that the Lord gives you guys grace and peace through these days.
