

Jennifer Jeanette Natelborg

January 11, 1965 - November 9, 2023

Conway, SC

Jennifer Jeanette Natelborg, 58, passed away unexpectedly on November 11, 2023, at her home in Conway, South Carolina.

Born, January 11, 1965, in Berkeley Springs, West Virginia, she was the daughter of Lila VanMeter and the late Donald VanMeter Sr. She is also preceded in death by her grandmother and grandfather: Alma Ruth (Abe) and Gilbert Clifton Youngblood; her aunts: "Momma" Donna Breighner and Charlotte Youngblood; and her uncles: Darrell and Kenneth Youngblood. Jennifer is survived by her husband of nine years, Steven Natelborg, and their four-legged fur babies: Pretty Boy and Pretty Girl; her siblings: Jay Frye, Edward VanMeter, Sherry VanMeter, and Donald VanMeter; her children: Keith Weaver Jr., Christopher McKinley, Krystal Hobbs and her husband Robert Hobbs Sr., Sarah McKinley, and Somers McKinley Jr. and his wife Gabriella McKinley; her stepchildren: Katie Lee and her husband Michael Lee; her grandchildren: Emma Wanderlyn, Mason Weaver, Aurora Hobbs, Chasydi Hobbs, Robert Hobbs Jr., Lila Hobbs, Aliek McKinley, Braxton McKinley, Benjee McKinley, Jasper McKinley, and Camdyn Rose McKinley; her step grandchildren: Griffin Troglin, Maverick Troglin, Charlie Lee, and Ace Lee; her niece and nephew: Irving Fletcher Jr. and Gabby VanMeter; and many numerous friends that Jennifer called family.

Jennifer will forever be remembered for her love and devotion to Jesus and the Lord. She praised and loved Him her entire life, which is what lead to her final love story with her husband, Steven. They met in church and were on the mission fields in Nicaragua together, and he was blessed to meet the true soul that she was. Jennifer was always dancing, singing, and trying to feed anyone and everyone she encountered. She always had an open-door policy to anyone she met and would never let anyone go without. She loved to see and make everyone she loved happy. She loved her grandchildren more than anything in this world, and devoted much of her time to making sure she was always there with and for them, even if she had to travel nine hours to do so. She loved all animals and things, but the white tiger was always her favorite. She loved her four-legged children and grandchildren. She LOVED Mexican food. She loved going for walks and would spend hours in nature, doing anything that would make her feel more connected to the Lord. Jennifer loved and embraced every part of life like no other. She had an energy that was contagious, and her hugs made you feel like you were wrapped in the largest and safest blanket, so warm and filled with endless love. Jennifer was a one-of-a-kind soul that will be forever missed by everyone who ever had the honor of knowing her.

Family and friends will be received at Goldfinch Funeral Home in Conway, South Carolina on Thursday, November 16, 2023, from 11:00 a.m. until noon. There will be a private family luncheon between 12-1 p.m. At 2:00 p.m., Jennifer will be buried and laid to rest in her final resting place at North Myrtle Beach Memorial Gardens.
