“ To the Todd Family:

In your sorrow, may there be peace....In your thoughts, may there be love....In your hearts, may there be healing. Psalm 147:3 promises: “He is healing the brokenhearted ones, and is binding up their painful spots.”

*My condolences,
SJB.*

“ Dorothy and Lindy

I am so very sorry for your loss. Take comfort in the knowledge that she is in God's arms now and that you will see her again one day. Let Him comfort and guide you in the days ahead. Hang touch--He is always with you.

JT, I love and miss you so very much. Words cannot express just how special you truly were and will still always be to me and my kids. I hope you knew just how much we loved you and just how many others did as well. Say hello to grandma for me and keep us in your view from up above!! We love you always and forever!

“ All of us have regrets in life....the time we did not return the call, the time we did not take an extra few minutes to just say "we care".... the time to just listen and actually BE A FRIEND. I am one of those guilty ones. One who always thinks the people I care about ACTUALLY know I care about them. Jennifer, I can never summarize the many wonderful memories we had growing up....words will never describe your smile, your heart, and your soul. I only live with the regret that I, MYSELF, did not slow down enough to enjoy your laugh while you were still here. Heaven gained an Angel with your death, but I and many others from the class of 95 lost more than just a friend.

Jennifer, we have gotten so close since the summer of 2011 when we had English together and you are one of my very dear friends. I am so broken hearted to learn that you have gone to be with the Lord at such a young age and want you to know that I love you so much. My deepest condolences are with your family. I will always remember the good talks we had and I will dedicate my nursing experience to you my friend. You may be gone but you will never be forgotten. May you rest with the angels in Heaven now. Love always, your friend, Rose Bennett

“ To the family of Jennifer she was such a loving and wonderful person. I worked with her years ago at Conway Police Dept and we were friends on FB. I am in total shock because she was doing so good finishing up nursing school. Heaven has another angel. May God bless your family.
