

Jerome F. Stypinski

April 20, 1940 - May 5, 2026

Conway, SC

Mr. Jerome F. Stypinski, age 86, passed away at his home on May 5, 2026 following an extended illness.

Born April 20, 1940 in Riverside, NJ, he was the son of the late Jerome J. Stypinski and the late Alma Stellwag Stypinski. He lived in Cinnaminson, NJ until he and Barbara made the move to Conway, SC twenty-two years ago. Jerome retired from PSEG after a long and successful career of 41 years as a lineman and troubleshooter in Moorestown, NJ and Bellmawr, NJ. He was a foodie and enjoyed cruises with Barbara. His other hobbies included fishing, working on jigsaw puzzles, and making wooden airplanes. He was an avid Flyers fan, and he could spend hours watching the SciFi channel, especially Star Wars and Dr. Who. Above all these interests and hobbies, though, nothing gave him greater pleasure than spending time with his family.

In addition to his parents, Mr. Stypinski was predeceased by his daughter, Darlene McMaster and his brother, Henry Stypinski.

Survivors include his loving wife of forty-four years, Barbara Stypinski; his daughters, Dana Dietrich and husband Richard and Rochelle Cikota; his son, John Cikota; his grandchildren, Domenico Ariani, Danielle Murray, Ashley Capresecco and husband Nick, Courtney Kelly and husband Dave, Brittany Jacobsmeyer and husband Tyler, and Riley Hague; nine great-grandchildren; and his brother, Thomas Stypinski and wife Maryellen.

In accord with Mr. Stypinski's wishes, no services are planned.

The family requests that donations in his memory be made to the charity of one's choice.

Jerome will be remembered by all who knew and loved him wearing his signature black hat.
