

Jerry Yoakum

January 11, 1941 - June 4, 2014

Longs...Jerry T. Yoakum, age 73, passed away Wednesday, June 4, 2014.

Mr. Yoakum was born in Delaware, Ohio a son of the late Carl Raymond Yoakum and the late Elizabeth Yoakum. He was a loving husband, father, and grandfather. Mr. Yoakum was employed with Nestle in Research and Development for thirty four years. He enjoyed hunting and playing golf.

Survivors include his wife of 46 years Sharon A. Yoakum of Longs; two sons, Shawn Yoakum of Round Rock, TX and Jason Yoakum and his wife Michelle Belinsky of New Milford, CT; one daughter, Riann Yoakum of Longs; one granddaughter, Brianna Yoakum and her mother Lisa of Round Rock, TX; one brother, Charles Yoakum and his wife Becky of Marysville, OH; one sister, Barbara Badertscher of San Angelo, TX; two nephews; one niece; and his loving pets, Yaegar, Suki, Dexie, and Emma.

A memorial service will be held at a later date.

Please sign a guestbook at www.goldfinchfuneralhome.com

Goldfinch Funeral Home, Loris Chapel is serving the family.

Tribute Wall

KB

“ I especially remember the summer of 1973 when we worked together in Sacramento . We had some good times together . My thoughts and prayers are with Sharon , Shawn and Jason at this time of their loss .

Ken Boehm

Ken Boehm - June 11, 2014 at 09:49 AM

“ Southern Magnolia Tree was purchased for the family of Jerry Yoakum.

June 09, 2014 at 09:16 AM

NO

“ Nestle Product Technology Center, Marysville, Ohio purchased the Southern Magnolia Tree for the family of Jerry Yoakum.

Nestle Product Technology Center, Marysville, Ohio - June 09, 2014 at 09:15 AM

PB

“ I haven't seen OX since school when we played football together he was my right tackle and I was a fullback and I can tell you he was one heck of a football player. I knew him from school and football and just hanging around together, My wife knew him from riding the bus together & school and we both can tell you he was one heck of a nice guy. For a big guy he was just as sweet & nice as he was big. Prayers for Jerry's family I hope it helps to know he was never forgotten back in his home town of Marysville, Ohio. Jerry & Patty Brown

patricia brown - June 07, 2014 at 01:52 PM

SE

“ To the Yoakum family,
My deepest condolences over your loss. May your many cherished memories bring you comfort. During this difficult time many find it comforting also to draw close to God in prayer. He is a comforter of all those who mourn. He will listen to your prayers and grant you peace. May you find solace in the Bible's promise of a brighter future when our loved ones awake from their restful sleep to enjoy life in paradise - never having to say goodbye to us again. Psalms 37:11,29; Matthew 5:5; John 11:11, 21-26; Revelation 21:3,4. Many are finding peace in this promise. I pray that you will also. Loving thoughts and prayers are with you.

S. Elaine - June 05, 2014 at 06:05 PM

LT

I knew Jerry in High School and he was one of the sweetest boys there!! Have not seen him since, but remember him so well and I was very sad to hear of his death. I am praying that he had a wonderful life and was happy Reading his obituary in our local paper,,,I am guessing he had that wonderful life with wife, Sharon and his children. I am so sorry. Bless his heart. Linda Smith Trees

Linda Trees - June 07, 2014 at 09:04 AM

LG

We, meaning the class of '59, the best class, all loved "Ox". What a great guy he was. I was thrilled to get to visit with him at one of our reunions a few years ago. My heart goes out to his family. His passing saddens me deeply.....Weezie Hoopes Gordon

Louise Hoopes Gordon - June 08, 2014 at 07:39 AM

CK

*Jerry was loved by all his classmates class of 1959.I was his biggest cheerleader. One more cheer for a life well lived.
rest in peace OX*

carolyn reed keigley - June 11, 2014 at 09:11 AM