“ I am sorry I could not be there for your Mom's funeral, I have been praying for all of you, I always said Miss Jassamine was an Angel that always took care of everyone. She will be missed by anyone who knew her and knew how sweet, kind and loving to everyone around her.

“ I enjoyed seeing and talking with Ms. Porter practically every week for 5 years when I worked at Laurie's I.G.A. She was always such a pleasant person. I know all of you will miss her and expect to join her again one day. May the good Lord comfort you with friends and memories during this time.

“ I CAN REMEMBER ALL OF US SITTING AT THAT LONG TABLE WITH UNCLE EARNEST, JOE, DON AND THE KIDS AND OF COURSE AUNT JESS AND EATING THE BEST BISCUITS AND OTHER FOOD SO LOVINGLY MADE. AND SO GOOD. SHE NEVR HAD ONE BAD THING TO SAY ABOUT ANYONE. I WILL MISS YOU BUT AM SURE IN MY HEART YOU ARE HOME WITH EARNEST, JOE ,DON, MOMMA AND DADDY AND LITTLE EARNEST AND WITHOUT PAIN OR TEARS. GONNA MISS YOU. RIP

“ So sorry to learn of your loss of Mrs Porter. I and now my daughter, Jennifer, have been back yard neighbors to the Porters since 1978. I will always remember how much she thought of our bulldog, Patches. She would always help us look for him when he "ran away". In the 1980's she and Mr Porter would help us keep a pathway across the field so that my sons, Steve and David, could walk to Homewood School to catch a school bus to high school, because the bus did not come down Long Rd. at that time. Will be praying for comfort to family.
