“Gone way too early. The Good Hope Baptist Church Family will forever miss our good friend and fellow worshiper. Jesse was a kind and gentle man that could always be counted on, whether he was working around the Church performing various task or helping a neighbor in need. I will always remember his friendly greetings, his contagious laughter and never forget his attention getter "Look Here".

To the family, we share your grief but gain strength knowing that Jesse is in a beautiful place today. Job well finished, rest well our friend.
