“ It's hard to pick one memorable moment with my dad aka Pop, as there were so many. The one that sticks out the most is...I was 14, we were going to Delaware. He let me drive his big yellow Cadillac over the Bay Bridge. My mom was nervously sitting in the back saying "oh my oh my" with her hands over her eyes. Pop said "Josie leave her alone, she's doing fine". Pop had more confidence in me then I had in myself. He was always my biggest supporter. I miss him terribly. Until we meet again Pop. I love you, Patti
