“Jessie was a fun-loving person in my opinion. I enjoyed traveling with Jessie and her family on several occasions while she was striving with cancer, but despite it all she was enjoying life to the fullest. I admired her strength and stamina to keep going on and having fun. She will be missed.”

““Jesstephanie” was one of the kindest most genuine friends I have ever known. We could go long periods without talking and pick right back up where we left off. She always felt much more like family to me. She will be forever in my heart. “The grandma” I love you and am sending huge hugs. Zane, thank you for being so wonderful to her and the kids you are a blessing”

“ Paula and Family,
We cannot offer words to mend your hearts or words to heal your pain, but we can offer to surround you with love.
May you find comfort in knowing just how loved Jessie was and the impact she had on so many people. When I read her posts on Facebook and the comments of her friends and family, I knew she was a woman of great strength and courage. Her legacy will live on in Paige and Alexander and the many other lives she has touched.
We hope the memories that sting your face with tears today, turn into smiles tomorrow.
Sending you love and praying for your peace!
Love, Brenda and Bob
