

Jim Spann

April 4, 1952 - October 15, 2025

Jim Spann, 73, passed away peacefully on October 15, 2025 at his home surrounded by his loving family. Jim was born in Columbia, SC on April 4, 1952, the youngest son to the late Samuel Robert Spann, Sr. and Louise Howard Ervin Spann. The Spann family later moved to Myrtle Beach, SC in 1957.

He was a proud graduate of Myrtle Beach High School, and later attended Clemson University, the University of South Carolina and Coastal Carolina University playing his favorite sport of basketball at each of those stops. Jim followed in his father's and brother's footsteps, working at Spann Roofing until his retirement in 2015. He met countless people during his time at Spann Roofing, many of who he would keep up with long after his retirement. Jim loved flounder fishing in the creeks of Murrells Inlet, catching and cleaning crabs, hanging out at the "point" on a summer afternoon or watching any ball game he could find on the TV. He especially loved following his Clemson Tigers and Atlanta Braves, watching every game win or lose.

Jim is survived by his wife, Alice McIntosh Spann of Murrells Inlet, his son James (Jimbo) McFadden Spann, IV and wife Byerly of Murrells Inlet, his grandchildren, James McFadden Spann, V and Robert Cale Spann of Murrells Inlet, his sister Louise Spann Smith of Myrtle Beach, his sister Ginny Spann Merritt and her husband Jimmy of Myrtle Beach, his brother Samuel (Sammy) Robert Spann, Jr. of Murrells Inlet, his stepsister Jane Mothershead Jarvis and husband Jimmy of Myrtle Beach, his stepsister Yvonne Mothershead

Wade and husband Jim of Atlanta, and many nieces and nephews.

The family would like to thank all of Jim's friends and extended family, both near and far, that have reached out to check on him and visited him over the last few months. Also, the family is forever grateful to Jim's caregiver for the last 9 years, Gina Kersey. Her dedication and commitment to his well-being will never be forgotten by all of those who loved him.

“ I remember mother and I visiting y'all one summer at your beach house rental. Jim and I and other cousins body surfed and bobbed on the waves for hours. It was just a fun afternoon that I always look back on with fondness. Prayers sent for you. Laura

“ Dear Spann Family,

I am so sorry that Jim has passed. May he rest in peace and you all hold your memories of him close to your heart.

I worked for Dargan Construction Company 44 years before retiring in 2009 and knew the Spann Roofing Company as one of our sub-contractors. In fact, their first office was right down the street from ours on 8th Avenue, North. After many years there, they moved their business to Conway. I will always remember Mr. Bob Spann, the father of Sammy and Jim. He and his sons were always courteous and respectful and ran a good company. I want to continue with this little remembrance of Mr. Bob Spann. Things at Christmas may now have changed in the corporate world, but back then, some sub-contractors would bring a little Christmas gift to the owners of a construction company to whom they were working. One day I was sitting at the front desk, and Mr. Bob Spann walked into the lobby and up to the reception window and had wrapped Christmas presents in his arms. This time, however, he had presents for us two ladies in the office. He handed them to me smiling and said, “For all your courtesies, Merry Christmas.”

Things like this say a lot about how Mr. and Mrs. Bob Spann raised their children, and Jim was certainly blessed to have been one of them.

Sincerely,

Vickie Cooper

“ Jim Spann was loved by so many people, as are the Spann Family. Alice, “Jimbo”, Byerly, Lou, Sammy, Ginny, you are in our prayers for comfort, strength, and Peace. Jim is now in the arms of Jesus and all of his loved ones, and, I believe, he would want you to celebrate his life, as he traveled from his earthly home to his permanent home in heaven 🙏❤️.
