“ Wanda, I know that you will miss Jimmy so much. You two went everywhere and done everything together. I have been thinking since the funeral about the many laughs we shared with you two when you lived in Va. I will never forget the pink & black attire, the "sheen", or the blue car he drove when you two first met or the U Haul heading for Va. You were a good wife to him and you had 4 beautiful kids together and you helped him and supported him like no one I have ever known. Cherish the good times you had together and take 1 day at a time, it won't be easy but you are a strong woman and the deep love you have for him and your children will pull you through. ##imported-begin## Ethel Rabon ##imported-end##
