“ The earth really lost a fine man who will be greatly missed; however, heaven gained a great Christian who shared the gospel. Thank you Lord Jesus for not letting him suffer long for he is completely healed now. Donna and family the sad part is that he will be missed by you all until you reunite in glory one day. Praying for you all for Jesus to wrap you all in his loving arms and give you strength to go on.

“ Jimmy and I were in high school together. He never changed and was always a kind gentleman who cared for others and always had a smile when he saw you. I know he will be missed but also know he had done all he could on earth and it was time for him to go. Please take comfort in the many memories you all must have. It was always obvious to me how much he loved his family!

“ Jimmy was a good and respected friend. He was a man of integrity that had priorities of God, family and country....in that order. Debbie and I cherish the many fond memories through the years at Carolina football games, weddings, Christmas and retirement parties. He'll be missed. Donna, you can now take comfort knowing that Jimmy is in God's loving care. Loving thoughts, condolences and prayers are with the entire family. God bless you all.

“ Jimmy was always a pleasant man and ready to shake hands in church, usually asking how Rick was doing and how he could help. He would ask us in the spring when his tomatoes were growing if we needed any. He will be missed. Our deepest sympathy to Donna and family.
