“ Alison, evidently you have been on my sister's mind as well as mine. I logged on to search for your father's memorial page, and then the first name that popped up was Paula's. I had forgotten that she taught you,also. I have thought of you often, wondering where you were. I am so sorry to read of your father's death. He was such a wonderful man, one who always had a smile and a laugh to share. He was one of the first people I met when I started attending Trinity before I was married. Then, years later, I taught you! My thoughts and prayers have been with you, even though I am many weeks late in contacting you. God bless you and your family.##imported-begin##Ruthie Warren##imported-end##

“ Dear Alison, I just learned of your father's death, via the Horry Independent which keeps me up on "back home" news. I'm sorry for your loss and just wanted to let you know that even though it's been 26 years, I still think of you, especially at Christmas, when I put the cross stitch ornament you gave me on my tree. My deepest sympathies go to you and your family. Fondly, Your kindergarten teacher from Waccamaw Elementary##imported-begin##Paula Vaught Adams##imported-end##
