“ I've had not too many memories with my grandpa but the memories I do have are great. He was one of the funniest persons you'll ever meet he could make a joke about anything. I miss him so much there's not any words in the world to describe it. I just wish I could see him alive again. And I would love to have more memories of him, because I didn't really ever get to see him. Then my Mom, my stepdad Timmy, my brother, and I moved down here to be closer to him. Then 4 or so months later he passed away. I really wish I could have spent more time with him so much. Well I'm done here and Paw Paw Rest In Peace.##imported-begin##Matthew Shackelford##imported-end##

“ As we live this life we encounter so many problems and illness is one of them. And the worse of our problems is Death an enemy of life. Losing a loved one can be devastating, because we have a built-in desire to live and enjoy life with our family and friends. When we lose our loved one, for whatever reasons we may believe, it is distressing, because we miss them very much. At these times, we need encouragement and hope so that we can cope with our loss. For that reason, we can be encouraged by reflecting on the promises that God has given us through his word the Bible, concerning that hope of seeing our loved ones again. I hope that you find comfort in reading these scriptures. John 11:11-44, John 5: 21, 28, 29 and Revelation 21:4. My prayers are with your family.##imported-begin##Karen Cross##imported-end##
