

Joan May MacLeod

November 27, 1931 - September 16, 2020

Myrtle Beach... Joan May MacLeod, 88, died Wednesday, September 16, 2020 at her residence.

Joan was born on November 27, 1931 in Queens, NY to the late George Stockvis and Pauline Dudley Stockvis. Besides her parents she was preceded in death by her husband, Douglas MacLeod. She was an elementary school teacher and loved animals, rescuing and caring for numerous cats and dogs over the years. Additionally, she loved talking with people and spending time with family. Being born and growing up in New York City, she often recounted memories of going to Ebbets Field to see the Brooklyn Dodgers play and later in life enjoyed watching and rooting for the NY Mets. She will always be remembered and admired for her strong will and resilience.

Left to cherish her memory is her son, Robert Douglas MacLeod and wife, Pam of Murrells Inlet; and three grandchildren, Katie MacLeod of Columbia, and Matt MacLeod and Allie MacLeod both of Murrells Inlet.

In lieu of flowers the family requests you send donations to Attn: All4Paws Compassion Fund, All4Paws Animal Rescue, 708 Petigru Drive, Pawleys Island, SC 29585 or you can make a donation through their website at <https://all4pawssc.org/donate/compassion-fund/>

Goldfinch Funeral Home, Beach Chapel, Murrells Inlet, is serving the family.

Tribute Wall

“ So sorry. Lost my dad at 88 also, two and a half years ago. Take Care,
Tony Cahill

Tony Cahill - September 22, 2020 at 07:22 AM