

Joe Brumley

June 21, 2006

MURRELLS INLET, SC.....Joe Anson Brumley, age 73, of Blackmoor Dr., died Wednesday, June 21, 2006 at Waccamaw Community Hospital following an illness. \tMr. Brumley was born August 22, 1932 in Concord, NC, a son of the late William and Ida Crisco Brumley. He was an elder at Murrells Inlet Presbyterian Church, an avid golfer, and an outdoorsman who loved to volunteer his time to the church community. \tMr. Brumley was preceded in death by his sister, Valda Lefler and brother, William Brumley. \tSurviving are: his wife of 53 years; Dorothy Helms Brumley, son; Joe Anson Brumley, Jr. of St. Louis, MO, sisters; Donna Carmichael of Charlotte, NC, Doris Cobb and Iris Walker of Concord, NC. \tMemorial services will be held at 4:30 PM Saturday, June 24, 2006 at Murrells Inlet Presbyterian Church. \tMemorial contributions may be made to: ?The Little Chapel? building and restoration fund, P.O. Box 418, Murrells Inlet, SC 29576. \tGoldfinch Funeral Home, Beach Chapel is in charge of arrangements.

Tribute Wall

“ We wish to express our sympathy for the Brumley family. Joe was the 1st. person we became acquainted with when we joined the church. He was a very wonderful special kind of man and he will be sorely missed by the entire congregation.##imported-begin##Pete & Anita Kote##imported-end##

June 24, 2006 at 12:00 AM