“ Evie, I will never forget our trip to visit with you guys. George and I had the best time, and Joe got me loving golf. Said “girl, you’ve got game!” We came home from that visit and I started playing with George after that.

Georgie passed away in June, but he always had you two in his thoughts. Especially during hurricanes! 🤖. They were military buddies, now they are heavenly buddies. You will be in my thoughts and prayers Evie.
