

"Joe" Jose Roberto Amaya

May 19, 1949 - September 9, 2021

"Joe" Jose Roberto Amaya, 72, of Myrtle Beach, passed away on September 9, 2021 at Grand Strand Regional Medical Center in Myrtle Beach. Joe was born May 19, 1949 in Lockney, Texas, a son of the late Adolfo Amaya and Luisa Arredondo Amaya. In addition to his parents, Joe was preceded in death by his brother Louis Amaya.

In life, Joe proudly served in the United States Navy for 20 years. During his time in the Navy, he served in the Vietnam War. In 2003, he married his wife Tatyana in Portland, Oregon. Last year, Joe and his family relocated to Myrtle Beach. Joe worked as a social worker for many years with the Department of Social and Health Services.

In his leisure time, he enjoyed fishing, hunting, reading and woodworking. He also loved cooking and was especially good at making Thanksgiving Dinner for his family. He was also a member of the Beach Church. Above all else, Joe loved his family dearly. He was a very kind, caring and thoughtful man who also had a great sense of humor.

Joe is survived by his loving family, including his devoted wife of 18 years, Tatyana Amaya; his daughter Andrea (and her husband Chris), his son Anthony Amaya and his daughter Claudia Amaya; his sister Lena Larson, his brother George Amaya, his sister Lydia Lassos and his brother Adolfo Amaya

Jr., as well as many other extended family members, friends and coworkers.

A private burial will be held at Southern Palms Memorial Gardens in North Myrtle Beach, SC.
